

Patti Becker Dressage Clinic

at

Sunflower Farms

April 28th & 29th 2007

Sponsored by IDCTA

Patti Becker is a USDF Gold, Silver and Bronze medalist, Patti is the Dressage trainer at Fireside Farm. In 2004, she qualified and competed in the USET Intermediare Championships in California, where she placed 7th out of the 12 pairs competing. In 2006 she rode Feuri to place 2nd in the Dressage Horse of the Year standings at 3rd Level and at the 2006 USDF Region 2 Championships, she was Champion at Prix St. Georges in the open division on her horse Sandor. She has coached her students to Championships at Prix St. Georges, Intermediate 1, Third Level, and Training Level. In addition her horses in training and students have won numerous IDCTA year-end awards.

In 2006, Patti was asked to participate in clinics with Ulla Salzgerber and Debbie McDonald. Patti continues her development as a Dressage rider over the winter in Florida under the tutelage of George Williams and Jan Brons. Patti is committed to correct training of the dressage horse and has a systematic approach that works for both her and her students.

Cost is $180 for IDCTA members / $220 for non-members and includes 2 – 45 minute lessons with Patti and lunch on both days. Stabling is an additional $50 – or for haul in only $25. There is no charge for auditing. Lunch can be provided for auditors with advance notice, cost is $5.

To send entry (see forms) or for additional information please contact:

Pam Harting

1341 South Fairview
Park Ridge, IL 60068

email: pamharting@comcast.net

phone: 847-825-3607